IGLTA

For 15 years Spartacus Traveler has been reporting on the wide world of gay travel. We research with passion because we are travelers from the bottom of our hearts. Exactly like our readers.

Some destinations have long been known to the community. We keep an eye on current developments and provide you with the latest local news for these spots.

At the same time we want to inspire and introduce lesser-known destinations. We include events such as Pride parades, cultural festivals and sporting events, parties, and cruises as special travel occasions and introduce you to interesting locals and their perspectives on their home countries.

LGBTQ TRAVEL MARKET

- NEW RESULTS

Current estimates assume that there are almost 6 million members of the LGBTQ community in Germany. In 2019/2020, several surveys have looked at the travel behaviour of the German and international LGBTQ community, including the European LGBTQ Study by Visit Brussels*, supported by the Blu Media Network, and a recent survey on travel behaviour related to Corona, supported by Europe's largest LGBTQ dating portal Romeo. Here are the most important results:

NUMBER OF HOLIDAY TRIPS

With a figure of 8 to 9 SHORT BREAKS OF LESS THAN A WEEK AND 3 HOLIDAYS OF MORE THAN 7 DAYS PER YEAR, the German LGBTQ market is at the top compared to its European neighbours.*

AIR TRAVEL

German LGBTQ travelers take an average of almost 3 INTERCONTINENTAL AND ALMOST 6 CONTINENTAL FLIGHTS PER YEAR, making them the travel champions compared to other European countries.*

MOTIVATION

When choosing a destination, NEW DESTINATIONS play a major role, as well as AFFORDABLE FLIGHTS, GOOD FOOD & DRINK AND LOCAL SECURITY for LGBTQ travelers. In the case of multiple choices for planned city breaks within Europe, the following preferences apply*:

- Stockholm 55%
- Dublin 53%
- Brussels 51%
- Lisbon 47%
- Vienna 46%
- Prague 44%
- Amsterdam 41%
- Madrid 40%
- Zurich 36%
- Milan 33%
- Rome 31%
- Barcelona 28%

HOTELS

Over 50% of German LGBTQ travelers prefer hotels in the 4-star category and above, 25% book hotels in the 1- to 3-star category, 13% prefer apartments. Throughout Europe, German travelers thus have the highest proportion in the 4-star category and the lowest in apartments.*
